PRESIDENT'S LETTER

This is the first issue for the new year and we have great expectations. Ashley County Genealogical Society now has a total membership of 127. We enjoy hearing from out-of-town members and we hope to see our local members at our fall meetings.

The National Genealogical Convention in Biloxi, Mississippi was great. Marilyn Hudgens, Rhonda Norris and I were among 1400 plus who attended from all over the nation. The lectures were informative and we met many interesting people. Also we came home with lots and lots of plans and ideas. Look for some of them in the near future.

We thank each one who has spent countless hours abstracting information for our publications. There's still a lot of material to be abstracted, wills, deeds, etc., if you have a few hours to donate, volunteer to help with this. It will be appreciated. We need all the help we can get.

If you have old family Bibles please send us copies of these for publication. Be sure to include the publication date of the Bible. Feel free to send materials, journals, letters, papers or diaries to be considered for publication.

Our quarterly exchanges are at Paul Sullins Library. They number 27 from Louisiana, Mississippi, Texas, Georgia, Alabama, Kentucky, North Carolina, Missouri, Virginia, and California. If you're looking for information from these areas, check them out. You just might find what you're looking for.

This is your organization so let us know your ideas for programs, workshops, and projects. WE NEED YOU!

Rebecca Brown

MOUNT OLIVE BAPTIST CHURCH

ASHLEY COUNTY, ARKANSAS

The Mount Olive Baptist Church (of the Berea Community) was organized on May 12, 1859. A Presbytery composed of Elders J.V. McCULLOCK, H. HARDIN, AND Wm T. EVERETT, met in the Methodist Church at New Salem, Drew County, Arkansas. J.V. McCULLOCK acted as moderator. Deacons elected were George L. GAMMELL and George ETHERIDGE. T.N. PREWITT was elected church clerk.

Nine males and eight females presented letters of recommendation and became the charter members. Unfortunately the list has been lost.

In 1889 the members voted to build and John HIGGENBOTTOM was given the contract. W.S.WHEAT was the carpenter. In 1890 a graveyard was marked off.

The church enforced a strict moral code and the church minutes noted disciplining for drinking, dancing, gossiping and other sins. In April 1873 the Sabbath School was organized with W.C. KIMBRO as superintendent and Bros. RILEY and JOHNSON as assistant teachers. Pupils were: MALES, J.C. RILEY, J.H. JOHNSON, W.B. WHEAT, J.R. RILEY, W.W. ETHERIDGE, J.M. RILEY, Wm. WHEAT, J. L. RILEY, S.J. RILEY, J.L. HALES, Hogan ALLEN, C.T. WHEAT, Sam SMITH, Chas SMITH, Henry WHEAT, Lewis GRELIAR, DE. SULLIVAN, J.M. WHEAT, John WHEAT, .
FEMALES: E. H. PRITCHARD, Elmirah JINNINGS, M.J. STRAUGHN, M.E. STRAUGHN, H.J. STRAUGHN, M.A. RILEY, S.J. ETHERIDGE, M.M. JOHNSON, M.J. ALLEN.

Preachers for the church from its organization in 1859 until 1898 were: N.A. WATSON, J.V. McCULLOCK, Hogan ALLEN, W.C. KIMBRO, ELDER J.F. GRIFFIN, G.D. MOORE, S.A. DAVIES, J.W. SIMS.

Ann Etheridge VEAZEY has copied the minutes of the church and placed them in a book. It may be seen in the Ashley County Library in Hamburg, Arkansas. There are two volumes, which are full of names and very interesting reading. The list of members given here is from Volume I, pages 220 thru 228.

National Parks, Monuments and Landmarks - Ashley County

In Ashley County one of the interesting and historic sites is a place called Sandy Point on Bayou Bartholomew. This was a favorite resort for baptizings before and after the Civil War. The accustomed spot for this religious ceremony was where the bayou made a narrow bend at a point of land covered with sand (hence the name). This point jutted out into the water, which grew deep gradually thus making an ideal location for baptizings.

MOUNT OLIVE CEMETERY

From intersection of Highway 81-82 north of Hamburg, travel east on Hy 82 for 2.4 miles; turn north onto Promise Land Road and travel 9.3 miles; take left fork in road and continue straight for 1.6 miles to Mt. Olive Cemetery, adjacent to road. (Promise Land Cemetery will be passed.) Copied by Mrs. James A. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Files and Mrs. Carl Dean Miller, 13 Mar 1966 for NSDAR. The lots are difficult to separate, and it is possible that some of the family groups are not correctly identified. Note: interments since 1966 are not copied.

Interspersed with these burials are marriage records from Ashley County Arkansas Marriages, 1849-1910, published by ACGS 1988.

TALK ABOUT THE WEATHER

In 1888 as in 1966 "everybody talked about the weather but nobody did anything about it." The question was asked as to whether this (1888) would be a hot summer, and it was predicted by experts that it would be. The authority based his answer on the assumption that weather seemed to run in cycles of seven years -- that a hot summer is followed by a cold one and then it would take seven years for it to build back up to the very hot one again.

The weather prophet said the summer of 1867 was so hot and dry that during August the grass crumbled under the feet when trod upon. In 1868 it was a cool summer with the thermometer seldom going above 85 degrees. By 1874 it had built back up to the hot schedule to be followed in 1875 an unusually cold one. Then they grew warmer again until 1881 in which no rain fell for nine weeks. It was stated that more persons suffered sunstrokes that summer than in all the years since.

The summer of 1882 was quite cold with a few flakes of snow falling on the morning of July 4 followed by hail in the afternoon. The rest of July was cold and August temperatures were so low that overcoats were necessary here in Union County for comfort at night.

ABSTRACTS OF ASHLEY COUNTY EAGLE

Chas. FISH - Undertaker, Hamburg, Ark.

January 19, 1893

Between two and three o'clock last Thursday morning the majority of our sleeping citizens were rudely awakened by loud explosions, the ringing of bells, and the cry of fire. All hastened to the scene, and in less time than it takes to write up the results several hundred men, women, and children, white and black, were busily engaged in removing goods of all kinds from a long row of burning buildings on the East side of the Public Square.

The fire originated in the Post Office which was also the Family Grocery Store of ALLEN & ROLFE. Before it was discovered the flames had filled the building completely and caused the explosion above mentioned by touching off the Coal Oil tank containing fifty gallons and three kegs of powder, besides a large number of loaded cartridges....The origin of the fire is one of the greatest mysteries unsolved at this time, though it is supposed by all to be the work of an incendiary. Mr. ALLEN says he finished making up the mail about 9 o'clock the night before and closed the office and went home. He says they had no fire in the Store all day Wednesday, and consequently it was impossible for the fire to have originated from the Store. He also left $400.00 in currency in his safe, which could not be found when the safe was broken open after the fire, though the safe was securely locked, the lock unbroken, and all other valuable papers remained as he had left them....It is supposed that the burglar who got his $400.00 is the man who fired the building.

The losses sustained by the various parties doing business on the side burned are as follows. ALLEN & ROLFE think their stock worth about $2000, and carried an insurance of $1500, with $100 additional insurance on the Post Office furniture.

J. B. BUNN loss on building occupied by ALLEN & ROLFE, about $1000. No insurance.

M. E. SAWYER'S Drug Store, loss on stock and building $3500. No insurance.

HALL & SHOCKLEY loss on stock of Hardware, tinware, Tinner's and Carpenter's tools, between $900 and $1000. No insurance.

Mrs. S. C. GOODWIN loss on building in which HALL & SHOCKLEY were doing business, about $800. No insurance.

Capt. M. L. HAWKINS loss on Law Office building about $600. No insurance.

Mrs. M. E. FOOTE'S Millinery stock was saved in a badly wrecked condition; damage several hundred dollars. No insurance.

Mrs. J. E. BOYD loss on building occupied by Mrs. FOOTE, about $600. No insurance.

W. M. WHITLOW & Co., about $5,000. stock of General

ABSTRACTS OF ASHLEY COUNTY EAGLE

Merchandise, mostly saved in a badly wrecked condition, insured for $3,000, barely enough to cover loss and damage. Mr. J. D. PUGH loss on building occupied by WHITLOW & Co., about $1600. Insurance $800.

As the missing money from the safe establishes the fact that the crime was committed to cover up a robbery of the Post Office, our Post Master can call to his assistance the strong arm and wonderful detective powers of the Federal Government.

Notice is hereby given that the following administrators and guardians have filed their settlements at the January term of Ashley Probate Court 1893. G. P. GEORGE, Guardian of Robert NORWOOD.

Death Dealing Cyclone! The most destructive cyclone or tornado, as it may be called, that ever visited this section, swept across our county, about five miles south of Hamburg, on Tuesday evening of last week, just before dark. It entered the county near Extra Landing on the Ouachita River and passed out across Bayou Bartholomew just above Portland, leaving death and destruction in its path averaging about one quarter mile in width going in a north east direction....The home of Mr. A. P. FLOYD, near Petersburg, was the first destroyed, next all the out-houses and fences on Mr. J. W. PAXTON'S place disappeared, and several farms suffered severely in its march thence until the homes of Mr. R. M. LINDER and Mr. Jess HILL were reached and entirely demolished. But strange to say, though they were all covered with debris, none have died from the injuries received. Mr. HILL was badly crippled, one of his sons aged about eighteen was knocked senseless, and badly bruised, and Mr. LINDER'S right arm was broken just below the elbow. Mr. W. S. TERRY and some other neighbors reached the scene a while after dark by climbing over fallen timber and wading water knee deep in the low places on the way. Guided by piercing cries of distress they came upon a bleeding suffering crowd, containing among the number twelve women and children. The suffering families were moved into vacant houses near Mr. TERRY'S Saw Mill....Several miles further north east the home of Mr. John STONE lay directly in front of the dark funnel shaped monster and not a vestige of his residence was left standing. Mr. STONE, his wife and six children were scattered through the surrounding timber and wreckage. Mr. STONE, painfully crippled, gathered his family. His wife's head was badly crushed but still alive, one little boy about three years old was found with his right thigh and left arm broken, another son about five years old had the flesh torn from his body in several places, an eight year old daughter was badly bruised about the face and a cut on the side of the head; a tree fell on the foot of his ten year old daughter, and it is feared that her mind has been injured; the two older children escaped with least injury. After he gathered his family he went to the house of his nearest neighbor, Mr. E. G. PRICE for assistance, but finding Mr. PIERCE carried away by the same cloud, and his family in the same helpless condition he returned to his suffering wife and children. A few moments after his return his wife breathed her last.

Further on the home of Mr. W. E. SIMPSON was entirely destroyed and the members of his family more or less bruised, but none seriously. From Mr. SIMPSON'S to the Bayou a long stretch of timber was cut through, several negro cabins being wiped out until it crossed the Bayou and demolished the two story residence of Mr. R. A. H. CALDCLEUGH, seriously wounding several members of his family, and breaking the collar bone and badly gashing the face of Mr. S. L. MOORE, of Texas, who was stopping with the family.

Dr. W. S. NORMAN spent the remainder of that night and the following day among the wounded victims of the storm and was assisted by two young medical students, Drs. Jimmie NORMAN and Willie GADDIE.
